

Congratulations - You Win!

You win because you realize the importance of learning, laughing and loving – three of life's most beautiful and contagious dynamics.

You win because you embrace these attributes allowing them to grow and spread to those you touch.

You win because the knowledge, and love, and care gleaned from YES! resides deep in the crevices of your heart.

You win because you are powerful and have great love. Continue to pray, to learn and to grow with LOVE always.

TR Ford