Vans teams up with New York-based The Meatball Shop for the launch of this limited edition Sk8-Hi model.

The design features the iconic Vans checkerboard print with sketches of animated meatballs on the quarter panels, created in collaboration The Meatball Shop's chef/owner Daniel Holzman and Vans VP Steve Van Doren.

Being the fourth collaboration between Vans and The Meatball Shop, Sept. 29th will also mark "Love Vans Day", where at the restaurants and diners, those wearing any pair of Vans will receive a complimentary order of Mini Buffalo Balls.

The Meatball Shop x Vans Sk8-Hi is available now at The Meatball Shop locations, as well as online.
