

SQUASH

AUSTRALIA

Follow Us

1st February 2016

Buy Now For Discount Tickets to 2016 Awards Dinner

Even though it seems like it's a long way in the distance, now is the time to buy tickets for the 2016 Squash Australia Annual Awards night and dinner in Melbourne.

Read More

Perry joins East Coast Squash Academy

The East Coast Squash Academy is proud to announce and welcome former World #3, Madeline Perry, as the Academy's head professional.

Read More

World's best doubles players coming Down Under

Australia has won the right to host the 2016 World Squash Doubles Championships, with Darwin being selected as the city which will stage this prestigious event.

Read More

New Zealand triumph on Gold Coast

New Zealand has come out on top after a hard-fought two days of squash at the Trans Tasman Junior Challenge on the Gold Coast.

Read More

Titles decided on Gold Coast

Queensland's Alex Eustace and Western Australia's William Curtis waved the flag for host nation Australia on the final day of the Oceania Junior Squash Championships on the Gold Coast.

Read More

Copyright © 2016 Squash Australia

