

Richard Cagliarini

From 1990 to 2000 was a Junior Club Coach/Co-ordinator at the Coburg & Sunbury Squash Centres where he introduced and coached hundreds of youngsters in the sport of squash.

From 1990 to 2007 was the resident Head Coach at several Squash Centres located in the Northern & Western suburbs of Melbourne, plus Bendigo, where he established or continued the success of club junior development and competition programs.

From 1997 to 2010 was the Vice President/Committee Member of both the Professional Squash Coaches Association of Victoria (PSCAV) and the Professional Squash Coaches Association of Australia (PSCAA).

From 1990 to 2007 conducted Professional & Secondary School Coaching Programs at several North West squash venues, plus the Bendigo squash Centre.

Since November 2004, Richard and his wife Karen have successfully managed the Squash Logic Melton Squash Centre, where his great attributes are still being put to important use.

From 2004 to current, he has been the Professional Club Coach at Squash Logic Melton, jointly responsible for conducting social competitions and coaching programs for seniors, designing and implementing coaching and competition programs for juniors and co-ordinating grading and team entry of junior players into the North West Squash League junior pennant competition.

From 2007 to 2016 was the Squash and Racquetball Victoria's State Development Manager.

From 2008 to 2016 was the Squash and Racquetball Victoria's High Performance Manager

Tournament Director – 2008 Squash Australia National Junior Selection Series.

Tournament Director for all Squash Vic Junior Tournaments inside Victoria

Coaching Course Deliverer and Assessor of ALL levels in Victoria