

NYC RESTAURANT NEWS

NYC Snowstorm Prompts Restaurant Closures and Deals

Momofuku restaurants are closed for lunch, but others are offering discounts

by Eater Staff | Mar 14, 2017, 9:47am EDT

Getty/Drew Angerer

The snowstorm was expected to drop 16 inches of snow on New York on Tuesday, a prediction that has closed schools, libraries, and some subways. Despite the fact that it's been downgraded, plenty of people still aren't working or are working from home, but if you're planning to venture out for food or drink, check first — many restaurants are closing in light of the weather. Those who do venture out might be treated to discounts and specials.

Snow Day Deals

— Midtown American restaurant Atwood Kitchen and Bar and Gramercy restaurant Shay and Ivy will be offering half of bottles of house wine and mac and cheese.

— Lower East Side bar Rochelle's will be offering all-night happy hour and $5 shots of Fireball starting at 4:00 p.m.

— Murray Hill restaurant RARE Bar & Grill is open, and if you say "Back That Snow Up" to your server, you'll get 10 percent off their flambéed burgers.

— Gramercy Tavern is waiving its corkage fee during lunch service.

— The Vine inside the Eventi Hotel is offering complimentary hot chocolate with every purchase.

— This from The Modern, Danny Meyer's restaurant inside the MoMA: We'll be open in the Bar Room for lunch today and offering a special tasting menu, $128 for 6 courses. We're also waiving corkage fees today, so bring in your favorite bottle of wine and warm up with us. Stay tuned this afternoon for updates on dinner.

— Harold's Meat + Three (2 Renwick St.) will become a meat + four today, with chef Harold Moore offering a complimentary additional side with any entree, as well as biscuits and a dessert of choice. Additionally, the restaurant will be offering its Taco Tuesday special: Free tacos with purchase of every cocktail, beer or glass of wine from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m.

— Vai (429 Amsterdam Ave.) is offering 50% off all wine, beer and cocktails at chef Vincent Chirico's Mediterranean-influenced restaurant on the Upper West Side.

— Stella 34 Trattoria near Penn Station and its slew of sister restaurants are offering a free glass of Prosecco with meals today. Other restaurants in the group include State Grill and Bar, Rock Center Cafe, The Sea Grill, and Nick & Stef's steakhouse.

— SideBAR (118 E. 15th St.) is hosting a Beat the Clock Blizzard Party starting at noon. They'll have $1 beers until 1 p.m., $2 beers before 2 p.m., $3 beers before 3 p.m. and so on, in addition to 2 for 1 Stellas all day.

— All locations of local pasta chain The Meatball Shop is offering specials both Tuesday and Wednesday. Expect half-priced Hot Toddlies for $5.50, a hot chocolate special with steamed cream for $6, a spiked hot chocolate for $9, and free hot cocoa for kids with the purchase of a meal.

— Chelsea Market stand and 7th Avenue spot Creamline is staying open today. Anyone who orders pickup through their website will get a free hot chocolate.

— Faun will offer a complimentary hot cocktail as well as a few cold weather specials like a lamb stew.

— East Village Patriots bar Professor Thom's (219 Second Avenue) is hosting a snow day movie marathon with free popcorn and happy hour all day long.

— Luke's Lobster outposts in Upper West Side, Upper East Side, Park Slope, and Time Square will offer a lobster grilled cheese and small clam chowder combo for $15.