Selections from Executive Chef Brad Farmerie
2016	Ryme Cellars Vermentino ‘Hers’ (Carneros, California) A visit to Ryme comes with a handful of unexpected wonders – dogs barking, kids playing, music blaring, feet treading grapes, and endless sun shining. This vermentino squeezes those good times into a bottle – a moment to remember the best moments of wine and life!	50
2013	The Red Hook Winery Jamesport Vineyard’ (Long Island, New York) Abe Schoener + Brooklyn = Magic! The California philosophy professor and rule breaking renegade winemaker at Scholium Project brings grapes to the seaside Red Hook Winery and crafted this barrel aged sauvignon blanc a mere stone’s throw away from the Statue of Liberty.	115
2014	Failla ‘Chuy Vineyard’ (Sonoma Valley, California) Personal Disclaimer – I grew up with the Failla family in the 80’s, before any of us knew we’d end up in the world of food and wine. Touches of geeky wine craftsmanship like concrete eggs and legendary old vine vineyards allow for elegant, but powerful bursts of orange blossom, smoke, and floral flavors.	126
2000	Château Musar (Bekka Valley, Lebanon) 375ml Musar’s Cabernet Sauvignon blend is grown in organic Lebanese vineyards planted during the 1930’s by celebrated visionary Gaston Hochar. It remains an undiscovered cult classic in the wine world despite having received numerous accolades. If you’re looking for a memorable wine then consider this half bottle hero your secret induction to the best of the best.	85
