

WORLD JUNIOR MEN'S TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

1. INTRODUCTION

Although the ISRF World Junior Team Championship started in 1980 there had been a forerunner operating since 1972. In England it was decided to start a team event to coincide with the British Junior Open, and the first was held between 11 / 13 April 1973. Four countries, England, Scotland, Wales and Sweden took part at the courts of the National Westminster Bank Sports Ground in South London, playing for a shield presented by the Bank. The event was titled the Junior International Festival.

Every year until 1980 the unofficial international festival was staged, gaining in numbers and breadth of international competition.

SUMMARY OF THE INITIAL PHASE:

YEAR	VENUE	FINISHING POSITIONS
