

SQUASH

AUSTRALIA

SQUASH OZ MONTHLY

MAY 2016 EDITION

Follow us on Social Media

OzSquash

Awesome new offers from Squash Australia

Squash Australia has 2 great offers starting this month. See below.

Squash Australia members get 10% off PSA Squash TV

Massive savings on OzSquash Coaches Packs and Individual Packs

Read More

Australia names team for World Doubles Championships

Commonwealth Games gold medalists Cameron Pilley, David Palmer, and Rachael Grinham will form the backbone of Australia's teams at the World Doubles Championships to be held in Darwin in August.

Read More

2016 Coaches' Conference heading to Melbourne

Squash Australia is in the initial stages of planning the 2016 Coaches' Conference in conjunction with the Australian Open being held this August in Melbourne. The conference will be led by new Education Coordinator Zac Alexander.

Read More

Australian Junior Circuit Rankings System

Squash Australia would like to confirm its official position on the new Junior Rankings System.

Check out the rankings for May 2016 here:

Read More

Exciting new appointments to Squash Australia

Squash Australia is pleased to announce the appointment of a new team of leaders to help guide the sport into the future.

Check out the Staff page here:

Read More

Australian Open and Annual Awards Night tickets on sale

The Australian Open will be held at MSAC from the 8th to the 12th of August. Immediately following the finals will be Squash Australia's Annual Awards Night at the Mercure Hotel in Melbourne. Buy your tickets now before they run out!

Awards Night Tickets

Buy tickets to the Annual Awards Night here:

Australian Open Tickets

Buy tickets to the Australian Open here:

Read More

Copyright ©2016 Squash Australia

Unsubscribe