

NYC EVENTS

Easter Sunday 2017: Where to Dine in NYC

Chocolate bunnies, chocolate eggs, chocolate bunnies filled with eggs

by Patty Diez and Stefanie Tudor | Apr 12, 2017, 11:24am EDT

TWEET

SHARE

PIN

This Sunday is Easter, and restaurants all over the city are celebrating the holiday with themed specials and prix-fixe menus. Here's a guide to 11 great options for Easter in New York City.

Meatball Shop

What: If you aspire to a more casual day, head to any location of the Meatball Shop for an Easter special of "Bunny Balls," a rabbit and chicken meatball with apples, cinnamon, fennel, and sage. You can add them to any brunch dish the restaurant makes, including benedict or a breakfast sandwich (pictured).

Details: 11:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. All locations

The Meatball Shop