

Squash Australia 2016 AGM

2018 Commonwealth Games Update

Kay Kendall – Squash Manager

Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games Corporation

(GOLDOC)

2018 Gold Coast Commonwealth Games

From 4 to 15 April 2018, Queensland's Gold Coast will host more than 6,500 athletes and team officials from more than 70 nations to compete in the 21's Commonwealth Games.

My Role – Sports Manager - Squash

- The Sport Manager will lead the planning and delivery of the Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games competition for their designated sport
- They will be GOLDOC's primary representative in relation to all aspects of competition planning and delivery in accordance with all requirements and standards
- The Sport Department's senior representative on venue at Games Time

Proposed Support Roles

Sport Manager- Squash	9/01/2017	Kay Kendall
Administration Manager- Squash	15/07/2017	TBD
Technical Operations Manager- Squash	1/10/2017	TBD
Sport Operations Manager- Squash	1/12/2017	TBD

The Venue

- 9th January 2018 gain access
- Installation / Build due for completion early / mid March 2018

Where I need you

- Volunteers
 - Sport specific volunteers required
 - Targeted approach
 - Reward and recognition
- Testing
 - No training venue
 - Limited window to test facilities

Thank you for your time.

