Welcome To Our November Sale

Strong Demand for Refurbishment Opportunities

When working in the property industry it is interesting to study how trends in demand for certain types of property can change from one decade to the next and to look at the fortunes of different parts of the town and villages with the passing of time.

Some locations are it seems, always in high demand and trends do not alter that much. The top ten villages close to Northampton have been the same top ten since the early 1970's when I first came into the world of estate agency. Selling agents still go weak at the knees at the prospect of a sale in Boughton, Church Brampton, Great Brington and East Haddon just as they did fifty years ago.

The biggest demand for types of property will broadly speaking fall into two categories. The fully refurbished home with all mod cons and the dilapidated wreck with holes in the roof are two of the most popular categories. In recent years bungalows have also been in high demand, largely due to the fact that property developers do not build many of them from scratch these days.

This catalogue offers four such opportunities although none have holes in the roof, but all four of our lots today are properties in need of development or improvement, and two of them are in the top ten villages named in the list above.

Selling By Auction In Northamptonshire

Demand for our services in providing an auction sale service for property owners in Northamptonshire has continued to be high throughout 2019. Auction House Northamptonshire is the only residential property auctioneer offering regular room sales covering Northampton and the surrounding towns and villages, and as market conditions have changed throughout the year more and more vendors are turning to us to solve their property selling problems. An auction sale can be completed in as little as eight weeks from instruction to the fall of the hammer and so far this year we have sold over £7,000,000 worth of residential property by this method, which places the vendor in complete control of the timetable for the sale of their property.

All bidders will be required to register at the contracts desk prior to the auction with copy photo ID and copy utility bill or bank statement in order to comply with HMRC Anti Money Laundering Regulations.

Next Sale March 2020

With winter drawing in and Christmas looming you may think that the property market will go quiet throughout the winter, however, this is not usually the case and if you are looking to sell by auction early in 2020 we would be pleased to provide a free marketing appraisal of your property at the earliest opportunity. Please call our valuation team on 01604 259773 and we will be happy to help.

I extend a warm welcome to all of you attending the sale today including our vendor clients, their friends and families and legal representatives and if you are here as a buyer I wish you the very best of luck with your chosen property.

Most of the recipients of this catalogue are registered with our local data base of over 400 buyers including investors, developers and owner occupiers however if you have not registered to receive future catalogues please call us on 01604 259773 or complete our enquiry form at auctionhousenorthamptonshire.co.uk or complete the registration form available in the sale room on the day of the sale.

If you are new to the process of selling by auction please feel free to attend our sale at the Hilton Hotel Collingtree which provides excellent facilities and easy access from the M1 Junction 15 and if you would like to know more about Auctions please ask for a copy of our comprehensive Buying and Selling Guide which will take you step by step through the process.

Attending the Auction It is always wise to allow sufficient time to get to the auction. Legal packs for most of the properties will be available for inspection. It is important you read these and the final addendum/amendment sheet which will also be available as any purchase will be subject to these.

Bidding Each property will be offered individually by the Auctioneer. Ensure that your bids are clear and noticed by the Auctioneer. If you are successful in bidding for the property you will be approached by a member of Auction House staff who will request your personal information and identification. You will then be guided to our administration area and then the cashier desk for payment of the deposit.

Bidding by Proxy or Telephone If you are unable to attend the auction you are invited to contact us to discuss special arrangements for bidding by proxy or telephone. A Non-Attending Bid or Telephone Bid form and conditions are included in auction catalogues or can be downloaded from the Bidding Form links on our website.

*Guide Prices Guide prices quoted online and in the catalogue are provided as an indication of each seller's minimum expectation. They are not necessarily figures which a property will sell for and may change at any time prior to the auction. The sale price will be dependent on bidding in the auction room and on the Vendors' instructions.

Insurance On some properties the seller will continue to insure through to completion. Others will need to be insured by the purchaser, and auctioneers advice to all purchasers is that they should consider insuring from the date of exchange.

Plans, Maps and Photographs The plans, floorplans, maps, photograph's and video tours published on our website and in the catalogue are to aid identification of the property only. The plans are not to scale.

Pre Auction Sales Offers made on property included in this auction may be accepted by the Vendor prior to the auction. In such instances all buyer charges will be payable including the Administration Charge, any Buyers Premium plus all other payments detailed in the Special Conditions of Sale. If you are intending to bid at the auction for a specific lot, we recommend that you keep in contact with the Auctioneer's office.

The Auctioneers or Vendors cannot be held responsible for costs incurred in respect of any lot which is withdrawn or sold prior to auction.

Post Auction Sales If a property you are interested in is not sold during the auction please speak to the Auctioneer and make an offer at, above or below the Guide. Your offer will be put forward to the Vendor and if accepted, you will be able to proceed with your purchase under auction rules. Offers should take into account the Administration Charge, any Buyers Premium plus all other payments detailed in the Special Conditions of Sale as all of these are still payable irrespective of the circumstances.

Proof of Identification In order to comply with Anti-Money Laundering regulations we ask that all prospective purchasers provide Proof of Identity and Residence. Please bring your passport or photographic UK driving licence and a recent utility bill, bank statement or council tax bill to the auction. If purchasing on behalf of a company you will also need a letter of authority on company letterhead. We will carry out Electronic AML checks on successful buyers and remote bidders. It will include a search with Experian who may check the details you supply against any particulars on any database (public or otherwise) to which they have access. They may also use your details in the future to assist other companies for verification purposes. A record of the search will be retained.

Reserve Price Each property will be offered subject to a reserve price which we expect will be set within the guide price range or no more than 10% above a single figure guide. This is a confidential figure set between the Vendor and the Auctioneer just prior to the auction. It is a figure below which the Auctioneer cannot sell the property during the auction. After the auction offers will be sought and considered on Unsold Lots at prices below the reserves.

Solicitors Details The name, address and telephone number of the solicitor who will be acting for you in any purchase will be required before you leave the auction room.

The Catalogue Details of the property and land to be sold are set out in our catalogue and on our website auctionhouse.co.uk All lots are sold subject to Special Conditions of Sale. It is important that prospective purchasers satisfy themselves as to the location, boundaries, condition and state of the lots before the auction.

The Contract The Memorandum of Sale will be signed in duplicate. One copy will be given to you, which you must give to your solicitor. The second copy will be retained by the Vendors' solicitor. Completion usually takes place after 28 days but this date can vary. The legal pack of each property will state the completion date due. The date may also be announced immediately prior to the commencement of bidding of each lot.

The Legal Aspect Buying at auction is a contractual commitment. Before making an offer prior to auction or bidding at the auction or post auction, it is advisable to consult a solicitor regarding the General and Special Conditions of Sale, the local authority search and other legal documentation.

Viewing Due to the nature and condition of auction properties we highlight the potential risk that viewing such properties carries and advise all to proceed with caution and take necessary requirements to ensure their own safety whilst viewing any lot in this catalogue. Viewings are conducted entirely at your own risk, these properties are not owned or controlled by Auction House and we cannot be held liable for loss or injury caused while viewing or accessing any Lot.

Due to the nature of some auction properties, electricity may not be turned on therefore viewing times are restricted. Viewers will also have to bring their own lighting/ladders if wanting to inspect cupboards, cellars and roof spaces.

- 8. In the event that the written or telephone bid is successful, the Auctioneer will sign the Memorandum of the Contract on behalf of the bidder (a Contract would have been formed on the fall of the hammer).
- 9. In the event of a Contract, the deposit monies will be applied so far as necessary to meet the requirement for a 10% deposit (minimum £3,000) and the balance of the deposit (if any) will be held by the vendors solicitor pending completion. The published Administration Charge should be added to the deposit cheque or separate cheque and should be made payable to Richard Greener Estate Agents Ltd.
- 10. In the event that the bidder is unsuccessful in gaining the Contract, the deposit monies shall be returned to the bidder promptly.
- 11. The Auctioneer will make no charge to a prospective purchaser for this service and will accept no liability whatsoever for any bid not being made on behalf of the prospective purchaser whether through lack of clarity of instructions or for any other reason whatsoever. Prospective telephone purchasers will not hold Auction House liable for any loss or claims relating to the telephone bidding system. The prospective purchaser will be advised if the relevant lot has been successfully purchased on his behalf as soon as possible after the auction. Where the lot has not been purchased the prospective purchaser will be notified by post and the deposit returned as soon as reasonably possible.
- 12. Once delivered to the Auctioneers, the authority to bid is binding on the bidder on the day on which the particular Lot is auctioned. This is to allow for the possibility of a Vendor agreeing to sell post auction where the bidding has not reached the reserve.
- 13. The authority can only be withdrawn by notification in writing delivered to Auction House at their office two hours before the start of the auction on the day the relevant Lot is scheduled to be auctioned, or by delivery into the hands of the Auctioneer in the auction room half-an-hour before the start of that day's auction. It is the bidders responsibility to obtain a receipt on a copy of the withdrawal notification signed by one of the Auctioneers and without such a receipt the authority stands, any successful Contract is binding on the bidder.
- 14. If the bidder, or an agent, actually bids at the auction without having previously withdrawn the authority, the Auctioneer is at liberty to accept such bid in addition to any bid from Auction House staff as empowered under the written authority. Auction House will have no liability whatsoever if the price achieved is the result only of this competition in bidding without intervention from other bidders.
- 15. Prospective purchasers are advised in respect of telephone bids should they become disconnected during bidding or are unobtainable, Auction House will not be held responsible or liable for any loss suffered in respect thereof. I hereby confirm that I have read and understood the above terms and conditions to bid by letter.

COMMON AUCTION CONDITIONS (EDITION 3)

REPRODUCED WITH THE CONSENT OF THE RICS

INTRODUCTION

The Common Auction Conditions have been produced for real estate auctions in England and Wales to set a common standard across the industry. They are in three sections:

GLOSSARY

The glossary gives special meanings to certain words used in both sets of conditions..

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

The Auction Conduct Conditions govern the relationship between the auctioneer and anyone who has a catalogue, or who attends or bids at the auction. They cannot be changed without the auctioneer's agreement.

SALE CONDITIONS

The Sale Conditions govern the agreement between each seller and buyer. They include general conditions of sale and template forms of special conditions of sale, tenancy and arrears schedules and a sale memorandum.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

- IMPORTANT NOTICE
 A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:
 take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant;
 read the conditions;
 inspect the lot;
 carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries;
 check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot:

check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot;
 check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate;
 have finance available for the deposit and purchase price;
 check whether VAT registration and election is advisable;
 The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer.
 If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

AUCTION CONDUCT CONDITIONS

INTRODUCTION

- Words in bold type have special meanings, which are defined A1.1
- Words in bold type have special meanings, which are defined in the Glossary.

 The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conduct conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disapplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

OUR ROLE

- OUR ROLE

 As agents for each seller we have authority to:
 (a) prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller;
 (b) offer each lot for sale;
 (c) sell each lot;
 (d) receive and hold deposits;
 (e) sign each sale memorandum; and
 (f) treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by these auction conduct conditions.

 Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final.

BIDDING AND RESERVE PRICES

- All bids are to be made in pounds sterling exclusive of any applicable VAT.

 Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller.

 Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price, but not always as the seller may fix the final reserve price just before bidding commences

THE PARTICULARS AND OTHER INFORMATION

We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. The particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct. If the special conditions do not contain a description of the

That termination is without prejudice to the claims of either seller or buyer for breach of this condition G9.
