

Time Out

New York

JUNE 21-27, 2012 ISSUE 865
$4.99 TIMEOUT.COM/NEWYORK

The week's big festivals

Music! Movies! Nudity!

15 best sandwiches

with international flair

Can't-miss theater

The ticket to book now

AFFORDABLE GROUP DINNERS

The Meatball Shop

Groups of 8 to 24 can stuff themselves on the cheap at the Williamsburg outpost of this popular minichain, the most spacious of its three locations. Reserve one or both of the two banquet-length wooden communal tables, and for $15 a head, you'll get a family-style spread that includes two meatball choices (spicy pork, chicken, beef or veggie), two sauces (spicy meat, classic tomato, Parmesan cream or mushroom gravy) and three sides (such as mashed potatoes, rigatoni or white beans) for the whole party to share. If your entourage is on the small side, the regular menu is still a bargain—nothing is more than $10 except drinks. 170 Bedford Ave between North 7th and 8th Sts, Williamsburg, Brooklyn (718-551-0520, themeatballshop.com)

Starring
singer-songwriter
(and food-truck fan)
Norah Jones

from budget burgers to dinner dates
—almost everything under $15!

