

50 MOST STYLISH NEW YORKERS 2012

Posted by Marni Golden, on March 21, 2012 at 2:00 pm

22

4 of 51

MICHAEL CHERNOW

Restaurateur, Co-owner General Manager of
The Meatball Shop

DESCRIBE YOUR ABOVE LOOK AND YOUR PERSONAL STYLE:

My style is much like my personality, approachable, and comfortable with a hint of ruggedness. I am an easy going guy with a young spirit, my style emulates my energy. A good old vintage tee or a flannel and jeans is what I feel most comfortable in, I always finish up with a pair of vintage boots.

WHAT'S YOUR STYLE INSPIRATION?

My inspiration for style dates back to the 50's when most close worn in the US were made in the US, American made gear is made well, and heck I support local in almost all things I do, business and pleasure.

WHAT ARE SOME OF YOUR FAVORITE LOCAL HAUNTS (SHOPPING, MUSIC, FOOD/DRINK, ART, ETC)?

For clothes I love the J. Crew Men's Store, RRL store, Flying W, Eleven, and Levis. For Chowing I love Tomoe Sushi, Betto, The Meatball Shop, Caffe Vita, Motorino Pizza, Eleven Madison Park, and La Superior.

ANY FASHION GUILTY PLEASURES OR RECENT INDULGENCES?

I recently bought a pair of boots from RRL for $900 - my wife almost killed me, but they made me happy.