

EAT AND DRINK

NYC apple dishes, drinks and desserts

By Meredith Deliso meredith.deliso@amny.com October 4, 2016

Move over, pumpkin.

The plant is ubiquitous right now (especially in the spiced variety). But another seasonal fruit is inspiring dishes, desserts and drinks — apples. And with New York City being the Big Apple and all, it's only appropriate to get your fill this fall. Here's where.

0
COMMENTS

ADVERTISEMENT

The Meatball Shop's duck and foie gras ball

The Meatball Shop is getting fancy. Starting Oct. 6, the restaurant launches its new "Fancy Balls" program, featuring a dish made with a guest chef each month, available for a limited time at its flagship Lower East Side location. First up: owner Daniel Holzman's own duck and foie gras meatball, served with roasted apples and endive. Future collaborators are slated to include Dale Talde, Justin Smillie, Marcus Samuelsson and Ilan Hall. $14 (available starting Oct. 6 for dinner only, while supplies last); 84 Stanton St., 212-982-8895, themeatballshop.com
(Credit: The Meatball Shop)