buying a property at auction

the procedure explained

We have listed some of the regularly asked questions raised by prospective purchasers prior to bidding for a property at auction.

what does the auction brochure tell me?

The auction catalogue provides a photograph and a brief description of the property together with clear and concise details of any matters relevant to the property.

do I need any further information?

It is essential that you view the property and obtain a legal pack prior to the auction. This will contain all the necessary documentation pertaining to the property which has been prepared by the vendors solicitors. This pack can be downloaded free of charge from our website.

It is important to read and understand the conditions of sale and possibly notify your solicitor of your intention to bid.

how do I view the properties?

During the three to four week marketing period, we set viewing times for all auction properties. These are generally weekly and we are normally at the property for twenty minutes at a time. Contact Austin Gray to book a viewing time.

do I need to arrange a mortgage prior to the auction?

If your purchase is to be supported by mortgage finance then YES you need to have a firm offer of mortgage prior to attending the auction.

do I need a building society valuation?

If you apply for a mortgage to support your purchase then the building society will instruct their own valuer/surveyor.

should I have an independent survey carried out?

It is recommended that you have an independent survey carried out. Your surveyor should arrange access with the auctioneers and the survey should be carried out well in advance of the auction day.

what is a guide price

The guide prices for each lot are clearly shown against each lot and these may be subject to amendment in the period leading up to the auction.

The guide price is a price range that the auctioneers expect the property to sell within.

what is a reserve price

All lots unless specifically mentioned will be subject to a reserve price. This is a figure at which a property can be sold and will generally be between the parameters of the guide price, sometimes below it but never above the upper end figure. The reserve can also be subject to change right up to the start of the auction but will never be above the top of the guide price.

what do I need on the auction day?

To be in receipt of any mortgage offer, the ability to pay a 10% deposit, and two forms of identification (passport or driving licence, and a utility bill showing your current address).

do I need a solicitor in attendance?

Not unless you wish to do so. It is wise to notify your solicitor of the auction and show him the auction brochure along with any other information about the property you are interested in, including a copy of the legal pack.

do I need to register to be able to bid at auction?

Yes you do. Bidders are required to register at our auctions. If you do not have a registration form please contact the Auction Department as soon as possible. Proof of Identity and Residence is required, such as a passport or photographic UK driving licence and a recent utility bill, bank statement or council tax bill. If purchasing on behalf of a company you will also need a letter of authority on company letterhead.

how do I bid?

Make sure you signal your bid clearly by raising your bidding paddle. The auctioneer will then acknowledge your bid. The final bidding price will be repeated three times before the fall of the gavel.

what happens if I am successful?

If you are the highest bidder at the fall of the gavel, you are the successful purchaser and are contractually bound to complete on the purchase. At the end of the auction you will have to pay a 10% deposit and sign the necessary papers. All documentation will then be forwarded to your solicitor. You cannot take possession of the property until completion.

how do I pay the 10% deposit?

This can be paid by personal cheque, bankers draft, by BACS or debit card. We do not accept credit cards. The balance will have to be paid upon completion, which is usually 28 days after the auction date.

do I have to insure the property?

Yes, you must make sure that the property is covered from the date of the auction.

is there anything else to pay?

Yes, there is a Administration Fee of 0.3% (0.25% plus VAT) of the sale price, subject to a minimum of £660 (£550 plus VAT) payable separately to Austin Gray. There may be further disbursements applied by the vendor, their solicitor or the auctioneers. These will be detailed in the Special Conditions of the legal pack for each property.

can I arrange after sale viewings

Subsequent after sale viewings will be charged at a minimum of £36 (incl VAT) plus mileage allowance.

A view from the rostrum

The saying 'you get what you pay for' rings true in so many facets of life and none more so than with professional advice. For the majority of people, a property is their most valuable asset, so why would you not use the services of professionally qualified auctioneers with years of experience and expertise?

Our auction and valuation departments now boast five fully qualified Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (RICS) valuers that uphold the highest standards of professionalism and continued training befitting membership of this esteemed and internationally recognised organisation.

Speed and certainty of sale are the major attractions of auction, so when we were asked a few weeks ago to sell a residential investment property as quickly as possible, we created a special one-lot auction. The property, an unbroken freehold of 7 flats in Brunswick Square, Hove, was guided at £1,500,000 and sold, after a heated bidding battle, for £1,925,000. From instruction to exchange of contracts, on the day of the auction, was just 3 weeks.

Turning to this auction, the property in Meeting House Lane that we have been instructed to sell on behalf of Brighton & Hove Council, represents a rare opportunity to purchase a freehold building in the heart of the The Lanes, a famous and popular tourist area of Brighton.

This particular property traded for many years as Hall's jewellers and will be sold with a couple of large safes still in situ!

general auction conditions of sale

introduction

The common auction conditions have three main sections:

1. glossary

This gives special meanings to some words used in the rest of the conditions.

2. the conduct of the auction

These conditions regulate the conduct of the auction. If you read our catalogue or attend the auction you do so on the basis that you accept them.

3. conditions of sale

If you buy a lot you will sign a sale memorandum under which you agree to be bound by the conditions of sale that apply to that lot. These conditions are:

- General conditions that apply to all lots
- Any extra general conditions in the catalogue or an addendum
- Special conditions that only apply to the lot you are buying (and which may vary the general conditions).

The conditions are legally binding.

important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant
- Read the conditions
- Inspect the lot
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot
- Check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable.

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

1. glossary

In the conditions wherever it makes sense:

- Singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words
- A 'person' includes a corporate body
- Words of one gender include the other genders
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or re-enacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable)

actual completion date

The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

addendum

An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars whether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

agreed completion date

Subject to condition 9.3:

- (a) the date specified in the special conditions, or
- (b) if no date is specified, 28 days after the contract date but if that date is not a business day the first subsequent business day.

approved financial institution

Any bank or building society that has signed up to the Banking Code or Business Banking Code or is otherwise acceptable to the auctioneers.

arrears

Arrears of rent and other sums due under the tenancies and still outstanding on the actual completion date.

arrears schedule

The arrears schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

auction

The auction advertised in the catalogue.

auction conduct conditions

The conditions so headed, including any extra auction conduct conditions.

auctioneers

The auctioneers at the auction.

business day

Any day except (a) a Saturday or a Sunday (b) a bank holiday in England and Wales or (c) Good Friday or Christmas Day.

buyer

The person who agrees to buy the lot or, if applicable, that person's personal representatives: if two or more are jointly the buyer all obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

catalogue

The catalogue to which the conditions refer including any supplement to it.

completion

Unless otherwise agreed between seller and buyer (or their conveyancers) the occasion when both seller and buyer have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.

conditions

This glossary, the conditions for the conduct of the auction, the general conditions, any extra conditions and the special conditions.

contract

The contract by which the seller agrees to sell and the buyer agrees to buy the lot.

contract date

The date of the auction or, if the lot is not sold at the auction:

- (a) the date of the sale memorandum signed by both the seller and buyer or
- (b) if contracts are exchanged, the date of exchange. If exchange is not effected in person or by an irrevocable agreement to exchange made by telephone, fax or electronic mail the date of exchange is the date on which both parts have been signed and posted or otherwise placed beyond normal retrieval.

documents

Documents of title (including, if title is registered, the entries on the register and the title plan) and other documents listed or referred to in the special conditions relating to the lot.

financial charge

A charge to secure a loan or other financial indebtedness (not including a rentcharge).

extra conditions

old arrears

Arrears due under any of the tenancies that are not 'new tenancies' as defined by the Landlord and Tenant (Covenants) Act 1995.

particulars

The section of the catalogue that contains descriptions of each lot (as varied by any addendum).

practitioner

price

The price that the buyer agrees to pay for the lot.

ready to complete

sale conditions

The general conditions as varied by any special conditions or addendum.

sale memorandum

The form so headed set out in the catalogue in which the terms of the contract for the sale of the lot are recorded.

seller

The tenancy schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

transfer

Includes a conveyance or assignment (and to transfer includes to convey or to assign).

TUPE

The Transfer of Undertakings (Protection of Employment) Regulations 2006.

VAT

Value Added Tax or other tax of a similar nature.

VAT election

An election to waive exemption from VAT in respect of the lot.

we (and us and our)

The auctioneers.

you (and your)

Someone who has a copy of the catalogue or who attends or bids at the auction, whether or not a buyer.

2. the conduct of the auction

The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disappplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

our role

As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- Prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller
- Offer each lot for sale
- Sell each lot
- Receive and hold deposits
- Sign each sale memorandum
- Treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by the conditions.

Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final. We may cancel the auction, withdraw lots from sale, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

bidding and reserve prices

We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why. If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final. Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price. If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller. A reserve price maybe subject to change right up to the moment of the auction but any changes will be featured on the addendum and announced from the rostrum.

Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price.

the particulars and other information

We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. However the particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller and we are not responsible for errors. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

the contract

A successful bid is one we accept as such. If you make a successful bid for a lot you are obliged to buy that lot on the terms of the sale memorandum. The price will be the amount you bid plus VAT (if applicable). You must before leaving the auction:

- Provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale memorandum (including proof of your identity that complies with money laundering regulations)
- Sign the completed sale memorandum and
- Pay the deposit

and if you do not we may either:

- As agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again: the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or
- Sign the sale memorandum on your behalf.

All lots will be subject to a Administration Fee of 0.3% (0.25% +VAT) of the sale price, subject to a minimum of £660 (£550 +VAT) per property unless specified otherwise in the Special Conditions Sale.

Deposits must be paid by cheque or by bankers' draft drawn in our favour on a UK clearing bank or building society. The catalogue states whether we also accept cash, or debit or credit cards. We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until we receive the deposit in cleared funds.

If you make a successful bid for a lot:

- You are personally liable to buy it even if you are acting as an agent. It is your responsibility to obtain an indemnity from the person for whom you are the agent
- Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot
- If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract you are personally liable to buy the lot and must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the Buyer's default.

extra auction conduct conditions

Despite any special condition to the contrary the minimum deposit we accept is £3000 (or the total price, if less). A special condition may, however, require a higher minimum deposit.

3. general conditions

The general conditions apply except to the extent that they are varied by extra conditions, the special conditions or by an addendum.

1. the lot

- 1.1 The lot, including any rights granted and reserved, is described in the special conditions. or if not so described the lot is that referred to in the sale memorandum.
- 1.2 The lot is sold subject to all subsisting tenancies, but otherwise with vacant possession on completion.
- 1.3 The lot is sold subject to all matters contained or referred to in the documents (except financial charges: these the seller must discharge on or before completion) and to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents:

- (a) matters registered or capable of registration as local land charges
- (b) matters registered or capable of registration by any competent authority or under the provisions of any statute
- (c) notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority
- (d) charges, notices, orders, restrictions, agreements and other matters relating to town and country planning, highways or public health
- (e) rights, easements, quasi-easements, and wayleaves
- (f) outgoing and other liabilities
- (g) any interest which overrides, within the meaning of the Land Registration Act 2002
- (h) matters that ought to be disclosed by the searches and enquiries a prudent buyer would make, whether or not the buyer has made them
- (i) anything the seller does not and could not reasonably know about and where any such matter would expose the seller to liability the buyer is to comply with it and indemnify the seller against liability.

- 1.4 The seller must notify the buyer of any notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority of which it learns after the contract date but the buyer must comply with them and keep the seller indemnified.
- 1.5 The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or fittings.
- 1.6 Where chattels are included in the lot the buyer takes them as they are at completion and the seller is not liable if they are not fit for use.
- 1.7 The buyer buys with full knowledge of:
  - (a) the documents whether or not the buyer has read them
  - (b) the physical condition of the lot and what could reasonably be discovered on inspection of it, whether or not the buyer has inspected it.
- 1.8 The buyer is not to rely on the information contained in the particulars but may rely on the seller's conveyancer's written replies to preliminary enquiries to the extent stated in those replies

2. deposit

- 2.1 The amount of the deposit is the greater of:
  - (a) any minimum deposit stated in the catalogue (or the total price, if this is less than that minimum) and
  - (b) 10% of the price exclusive of VAT subject to a minimum of £3000
- 2.2 The deposit:
  - (a) must be paid to the auctioneers by cheque or banker's draft drawn on a UK clearing bank or building society (or any such other means of payment as they accept)
  - (b) IS TO BE HELD AS AGENT FOR THE SELLER UNLESS THE SPECIAL CONDITIONS PROVIDE THAT IT IS TO BE HELD AS STAKEHOLDER.
- 2.3 Where the auctioneers hold the deposit as stakeholder they are authorised to release it and any interest on it to the seller on completion or, if completion does not take place, to the person entitled to it under the conditions.
- 2.4 If a cheque for the deposit is not cleared on first presentation the seller is entitled to treat the contract as at an end and bring a claim against the buyer for breach of contract.
- 2.5 Interest earned on the deposit belongs to the seller unless the conditions provide otherwise.

3. Between contract and completion

- 3.1 Unless the special conditions state otherwise, seller is to insure the lot from and including the contract date to completion and:
  - (a) produce to the buyer on request all relevant insurance details;
  - (b) pay the premiums when due;
  - (c) if the buyer so requests, and pays any additional premium, use reasonable endeavours to increase the sum insured or make other changes to the policy;
  - (d) at the request of the buyer use reasonable endeavours to have the buyer's interest noted on the policy if it does not cover a contracting purchaser;
  - (e) unless otherwise agreed, cancel the insurance at completion, apply for a refund of premium and (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) pay that refund to the buyer; and
  - (f) (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) hold on trust for the buyer any insurance payments that the seller receives in respect of loss or damage arising after the contract date or assign to the buyer the benefit of any claim;
- 3.2 No damage to or destruction of the lot or any deterioration in its condition, however caused, entitles the buyer to any reduction in price, or to delay completion, or to refuse to complete.
- 3.3 Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply.
- 3.4 Unless the buyer is already lawfully in occupation of the lot the buyer has no right to enter into occupation prior to completion.

4. title and identity

- 4.1 Unless general condition 4.2 applies, the buyer accepts the title of the seller to the lot as at the contract date and may raise no requisition or objection except in relation to any matter following the contract date.
- 4.2 The buyer may raise no requisition or objection to any documents made available before the auction but in relation to any of the documents that is not available before the auction the following provisions apply:
  - (a) if the lot is registered land the seller is to give to the buyer within five business days of the contract date an official copy of the entries on the register and title plan and of all documents noted on the register that affect the lot
