Read each sentence. Mark a Con the line if Mark an I on the line  If the sentence is incomissing its subject or	if the sentence is omplete, tell whe	s incomplete.
The little brown dog ran all the way home.
Swam all around the pond.
The old woman with the yellow dress.
My sister, Sally, ate all the cookies!
Amazed by the strength of the storm.
The silly orange and white kitten.
I was surprised when I hit the ball!
Fell off the chair and onto the floor.
Ate peanut butter and jelly for lunch.
He was confused about his math homework.
The really mean kid down the street.
The teacher read a chapter book.
The man hung up the phone.
Almost forgot to read the book.
Check one:
When examining sentences for completenes	s, I feel unsure	I need help!

Identifying Errors in Completeness

Identifying Errors in Completeness Answer Key

Read each sentence. Mark a C on the line if the sentence is complete.

Mark an I on the line if the sentence is incomplete.

If the sentence is incomplete, tell whether it is missing its subject or predicate.

The little brown dog ran all the way home.	C
Swam all around the pond.	 	subject
The old woman with the yellow dress.	 	predicate
My sister, Sally, ate all the cookies!
Amazed by the strength of the storm.	 	subject
The silly orange and white kitten.	 	predicate
I was surprised when I hit the ball!	C
Fell off the chair and onto the floor.	 	subject
Ate peanut butter and jelly for lunch.	I	subject
He was confused about his math homework.	C
The really mean kid down the street.	I	predicate
The teacher read a chapter book.	C
The man hung up the phone.	C
Almost forgot to read the book.	I	subject