New York's 7 Best Spots for Sandwiches

Sandwich at Porchetta

By James Mulcahy

The sandwich scene in NYC might not be as crazily competitive as the burger or pizza realm, but it's close. Whether you like meatballs, chicken parm or porchetta between your two slices of bread, there's an option out there for you. Check out our list of the Big Apple's best sandwich shops from our 2013 New York City Restaurants guide. If you want to take some lessons from these top-notch purveyors, we dropped by Num Pang to get some tips on how to make a perfect sandwich at home - take a look at their easy advice in a video here.

No. 7: Meatball Shop

Food: 24
Decor: 17
Service: 19
Cost: $23

An "original concept" that "works", this "rapidly expanding" meatball specialist offers "mouthwatering" orbs "served in a variety of ways" plus "even better" "make-your-own ice cream sandwiches"; "can't-go-wrong" pricing ensures the "no-frills" setups are "always packed."
