

May anyone compete?

Everyone can compete except for full-time employees at Venture Cup and Venture Cup jury members, who are not allowed to compete due to the possibility of a conflict of interest.

Full-time employees and jury members are banned from participation in the contest for six (6) months starting from his or her employment or panel commitments has expired.

When in doubt

In doubtful cases regarding the rules of the competition, Venture Cup reserves the right to make final decisions regarding any of the above stated rules or situations.