10 Wines Under $20 to Enjoy on Your Holiday Weekend

JULY 3, 2014 @ 11:08 AM
BY: HALLIE MILANO

One of the best things about rising temperatures is being able to cool down with a glass of refreshing rosé. To celebrate the season we rounded up 10 wines under $20, recommended by some of the best in the business. These warm weather wines are expert approved and ready for tasting (preferably on a rooftop or beach). From crisp whites to bubbly pinks—no need to pick just one, you've got all summer!

Banyan Gewurtztraminer Monterey County, CA 2013 (above, left; $15, gramercywine.com)

Skye LaTorre of the Meatball Shop calls this Banyan Gewurtztraminer from Monterey County a “love at first sip kind of wine.” LaTorre describes “an abundance of charm and tropical fruit from the California sunshine. Off dry and crisp, so very food friendly. The price is so right, it looks like a mistake.” Spicy food is the perfect match for this invigorating white.
