

That's A Spicy: Meatball Shop

Jumping from the LES to the 'burg, Meatball's new countrified spot (old-timey photos, cow paintings, stool seating) is more substantial than the original, as is the bev program, which'll use its new liquor license to craft drinks in the same mix-n-match style as the grub, as well as pump out Galliano-aided whiskey root beer floats, and daily Jell-O shots ranging from lemon drop, to PB&J, to Salty Dog, which they've been known to become depending on how you use that peanut butter.

[You know you'll want to keep up with the daily Jell-O shot, hit up \[MeatballShop.com\]\(#\) for all the news](#)
