SPOTLIGHT

Have a Ball

Small orbs of beef, spicy pork, chicken and veggies are the obsession of regulars at The Meatball Shop (p. 55), a cozy eatery where the little balls are served four to a bowl with focaccia bread, three on a baguette, two on brioche or one on a slider bun (above) with sauce and cheese; and over, under or next to sides including white beans and freshly milled polenta. For dessert, ice cream is sandwiched between fresh-baked cookies.
