

Launching the Writer's Workshop

Grades K-2

A framework of lessons to help launch your writing year

THE NEXT BEST THING TO ATTENDING A LIVE SMEKENS WORKSHOP!

Course Overview

Many teachers have confessed that they struggle to get their writer's workshop off the ground. What should I do the first weeks of school? What are key lessons to jump-start my writing curriculum? How fast or slow should I move? Regardless of the writing model you're currently using, this online course provides K-2 teachers with a powerful framework of lessons that can help launch their writing year. Throughout the course, teachers will have the opportunity to plot and plan their own instructional calendar for teaching writing during the first six weeks of school. At the end of the course, teachers will be ready to launch their writer's workshop with their personalized blueprints in hand!

Training Topics:

- Understand the four phases of the workshop launch.
- Learn classroom-tested routines and procedures to establish the writing environment.
- Set the tone that writing occurs daily.
- Receive organizational ideas for writers' notebooks.
- Learn day-by-day strategies to introduce the 6 Traits of Writing so teachers and students are using a common language.
- Balance free-choice writing topics with teacher-assigned topics.
- Receive ready-to-go lessons with supporting resources, activity pages, and authentic student writing samples.

"Lots of information to take in. I am ready and excited to implement it in my kindergarten classroom." ~ K. Tippmann

"Loved mapping out the year!" ~ A. Goodfriend

When you complete the course, you'll be able to:

- ✓ Kick off the school year with a 20-day "game plan" for teaching writing.
- ✓ Establish routines to effectively manage a writer's workshop.
- ✓ Address common writer dependencies with procedural mini-lessons.
- ✓ Implement a writer's notebook in the classroom.
- ✓ Lead efficient and effective writing conferences with students.
- ✓ Develop a classroom writing rubric that students can use and understand.
- ✓ Transition from procedural lessons into the first writing unit.

Top questions teachers ask about launching writing

- ▶ Which workshop procedures are essential for effective classroom management?
- ▶ What physical spaces and places should I have within my classroom environment?
- ▶ How do I motivate my writers to use class time productively?
- ▶ How do I help my students develop more interesting writing topics?
- ▶ How can I motivate students to go beyond "fixing their mistakes" during revision?
- ▶ What are some proven methods for introducing students to the 6 Traits of Writing?
- ▶ How do I effectively organize my students' writings in notebooks, binders, or folders?

Kristina Smekens provides the answers to these questions and many more!

Your handbook for teaching writing

The first seven sections of this resource will help you start (launch) your writer's workshop. They include procedural lessons and strategies essential for establishing classroom management and building writer independence. Depending on your grade level, this "launch" could take up to six weeks to complete.

Once you've launched your writing instruction, use sections 8-13 to help you plan the rest of your year. There are more than 70 additional writing lessons that target the skills students need at different developmental stages of writing—drawing, labeling, listing, sentence writing, etc.

A planning calendar (pp. 8-9) will help you plot and plan which lessons you'll utilize to launch and sustain your writer's workshop. (A PDF and editable Word version of this planning calendar are available via the online resource.)

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Kristina Smekens

Kristina Smekens is a full-time literacy consultant who has built a reputation for using enthusiasm, humor, and common sense to equip K-12 educators with practical, demystifying strategies for teaching reading and writing.

As president and lead consultant for Smekens Education, Kristina is constantly developing new strategies for helping teachers to meet the demands of today's College and Career-Ready Standards. She and her two full-time associates share those strategies with teachers across the United States and beyond through on-site school trainings, regional seminars, and an always-growing pool of print, digital, and video resources.

A PRESENTER

Kristina has a gift for making the complex seem simple—for showing teachers how to meet the needs of readers and writers by bridging the gap between education research and practical, classroom-tested strategies that work. When she presents at state and national conferences, teachers flock to her sessions because they know Kristina will share strategies they can use in their own classrooms the very next day.

But beyond providing teachers with practical classroom techniques, Kristina is also a master at giving educators an injection of motivation and encouragement to help them return to their classrooms with the confidence and excitement they need to execute change. In fact, more than 17,000 educators rely on a monthly “shot in the arm” from Kristina as subscribers to her monthly email newsletter, “Big Ideas.”

AN AUTHOR

Well known for offering innovative ideas, Kristina has created more than 50 “Smekens Originals,” a compilation of books, guides, and classroom tools designed to help teachers implement best-practice literacy strategies. Among the most popular of these resources are her best-selling books, Launching the Writer's Workshop: Grades K-2 and Grades 3-12. Other popular publications include The Trait Mate: 6-Traits Starter Lessons, Connecting Comprehension & Composition, Sing & Comprehend, Close Reading Questions for Literature, Close Reading Questions for Informational Text, Trait Trackers, and Serving Up Synthesis. Additionally, Kristina is the author of Trait-Based Writing: Lessons and Activities (Scholastic, 2009).

A CRAFTER

Beyond books and physical teacher tools, Kristina has also created a library of more than 50 on-demand training videos that are utilized by teachers around the world. With topics ranging from “Building Kid-Friendly Writing Rubrics” to “Achieving a Close Reading,” each of Kristina’s “webPD” videos uses a seminar-style format to capture her energy and enthusiasm while conveying her teacher-friendly ideas.

BACKGROUND

Kristina earned her BA in English and education at Michigan State University. Prior to her full-time consulting career, she was an accomplished high school English and journalism teacher in Michigan and Indiana. A leader in state and national scholastic journalism endeavors, Kristina authored a journalism textbook and teachers’ guide for Walsworth Publishing in 2002.

Over the past 12 years, she has been blessed to work and learn with hundreds of schools and thousands of teachers throughout the Midwest. She was awarded the Excellence in Reading Award by the Indiana State Reading Association in 2013 for her contributions to literacy in Indiana.

Kristina lives in Warren, Indiana with her husband and business partner Brady, their three teenage children, and a rambunctious family dog named Buddy.

“Kristina was fantastic! She was very intentional in her approach to teaching the 6 Traits and making it interesting for all learners! I learned new and exciting strategies to improve student writing.”

~ J. McKnight

“Love your energy, enthusiasm, & honesty!”

~ K. Dernulc

“Thank you so much! Kristina is so upbeat and knows how to engage her audience! I learned a lot.” ~ L. Clark

“The organization was fantastic! Kristina made the most of every moment. I have new strategies and mini-lessons to use in my classroom next week!”

~ N. Fessler

“Kristina is amazing! I laughed out loud! A conference I actually enjoyed.” ~ B. Smith

“Kristina’s energy was captivating! She inspired me to be a better teacher and gave me the tools to succeed in the classroom.”

~ M. Fischl

“After 33 years of teaching, I still am drawn back into Kristina’s workshops because they are research-based, standards-focused, and very interactive.”

~ K. Cadle
