Manhattan's The Meatball Shop is debuting Vegan Balls at LES location

Vegans, you're in for a treat. The beloved Veggie Ball is getting a vegan makeover. You too can now enjoy meatballs from The Meatball Shop.

The Vegan Ball comes from a collaboration between The Meatball Shop and vegan-made-easy food blog, Thug Kitchen. And it's just in time to celebrate the release of Thug Kitchen Party Grub, the new cookbook from aggressive vegetable lovers Michelle Davis and Matt Holloway.

The Vegan Ball will make a limited-time debut at The Meatball Shop's Lower East Side location October 12–16. But don't worry—it won't disappear for good. After the 16th, look for the Vegan Ball as a special at Meatball Shops throughout the city.
