What did one autumn leaf say to the other ? “I’m falling for you”.

We’re sure you will be falling for all our superstars who have done us proud in the last 2 months.

Welcome to the autumn 10th edition of the KZN Tennis newsletter. Enjoy !

December SALGA (SA Local Government Association) news was that Ethekweni Municipality again won Gold. Well done Manager, Coach, parents, and the stars of December !

I play Cinderella tennis.

Sometimes I just don't make it to the ball.

ITF Young Seniors World Champs held in Cape Town in March. Lettica won Gold in ladies doubles, and Gold with Bruce Young in the Mixed

Nationals held in Bloemfontein in March. In the pic from left Lloyd Bissett, Lettica Venter, Lindsay North and Neville Wright

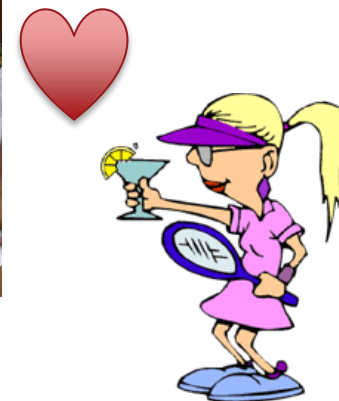

Interpro in Benoni in April

50B side lead by Phonnie Roos - 3rd
50 Shield side - lead by Braam de Villiers - 5th
60A side lead by Lindsay North - 2nd.

Ron Stirling with his Level 1 Officials students. Three day intensive training held in April. We should be seeing some of these graduates at our tournaments soon !

Our top stars Kylie Misdorp, Luc Koenig, James and Alex Edley were invited by ex Davis Cup coach JL de Jager, to attend the Matchpoint Foundation camp in Jhb in April.

Although strictly speaking not KZN news, but we hope you all supported our winning Davis Cup players in April. Next up Denmark in Sept. Bronwyn Morgas was clearly the good luck charm Raven needed !

Proof that tennis is for life. These men are all proudly over 70 and still play a mean game of tennis ! Absent from the picture are the wheelchairs, knobkieries, walkers and whisky.

At the risk of being clobbered by one of these so called missing knobkieries, let me sign off quickly.

See you again in June ! Kim.
