1 EXPRESSING FUTURE PLANS AND ARRANGEMENTS

In English we have many ways to express future plans and arrangements:

1. Present simple

The present simple is used to talk about future timetables and schedules:

e.g. The train leaves at 11.00 pm.

The meeting starts at 10.00 am tomorrow morning.

2. Present continuous

The present continuous is used to talk about future arrangements (plans organised/prepared with other people; we know the exact time and place):

e.g. We are playing tennis on Sunday at 4.00 pm.

They are travelling to Paris next weekend.

3. Be going to + infinitive

Be going to + infinitive is used to talk about future plans/intentions:

e.g. I'm going to learn English.

We are going to travel around Europe next summer.

4. Future simple (will + infinitive)

The future simple is used to talk about instant:

- a) decisions,
- b) promises,
- c) offers and
- d) suggestions:

- a) In a restaurant: I'll have the fish.
- b) I won't tell anyone your secret.
- c) I'll help you move tomorrow.
- d) Shall/will we go to the cinema tonight.

5. Future perfect (will have + past participle)

The future perfect is used to say something will be finished before a certain time in the future:

e.g. They will have finished the project by next year.

6. Future continuous (will be + verb + ing)

The future continuous is used to say that an action will be in progress at a certain time in the future.

e.g. This time tomorrow I'll be studying English.
