Location

Farnham Lodge is located near Burnham, bounded on one side by Lower Britwell Road and the other by Britwell Road. Accessed off the lower Britwell Lane there is good access to Heathrow Airport and the M25/M4 Junction

Description

The site is suited for a variety of uses subject to planning. There are a number of buildings on the site including Barns, Stores and Stables. The site is set in a semi-rural enclave but is in striking distance of all local amenities with shops and schools nearby.

Planning

We recommend interested parties contact South Bucks District Council for further information regarding any planning potential for development.
