

Mission Worksheet

Writing your mission down can be daunting. A Mission. It sounds so official, like you have to have it all together. In reality, your mission is just your compass. It helps keep you on track with why you do what you do. So, here are a few prompts to help draw that out.

finish these sentences

I started my business because...

I love helping...

I help my ideal clients by...

If I think big, I want to impact the world by...

put it all together

My mission is to

by working with

to help them

and ultimately create a life for myself where I