The Meatball Shop Chelsea, Featuring Underballs, Opens Tonight

Underballs

By Kathleen Squires

The latest addition to Michael Chernow and Daniel Holzman's Meatball Shop empire opens tonight at 200 Ninth Avenue between 22nd and 23rd Street, a 60-seater which is the first Manhattan location with a full liquor license. The Chelsea branch also debuts bratwurst balls, orbs made with house made sausage and accompanied with a beer mustard sauce. More ball-breaking news: Underballs, a 20-seat first-come, first-serve bar located underneath the restaurant, will serve the full Meatball Shop menu and is also available for private parties (212-257-4363).
