

Fahrenheit 451 Vocabulary Part 2

Cadence: rhythm or recurring pattern of sounds or movements

Divert: to change the direction of something; or to distract someone's attention

Intuitive: based on feeling or instinct rather than conscious reasoning

Profuse: abundant

Insidious: not appearing dangerous, but actually very harmful over time

Simultaneous: at the same time

Manifest: obvious; or to make obvious; or to show or demonstrate

Perfunctory: done without much interest or effort- especially as when dispensing with a formality

Bewilder: to confuse someone

Exhalation: the act of breathing air out of the lungs; or the air breathed out

Fahrenheit 451 Vocabulary Part 2

Cadence: rhythm or recurring pattern of sounds or movements

Divert: to change the direction of something; or to distract someone's attention

Intuitive: based on feeling or instinct rather than conscious reasoning

Profuse: abundant

Insidious: not appearing dangerous, but actually very harmful over time

Simultaneous: at the same time

Manifest: obvious; or to make obvious; or to show or demonstrate

Perfunctory: done without much interest or effort- especially as when dispensing with a formality

Bewilder: to confuse someone

Exhalation: the act of breathing air out of the lungs; or the air breathed out