Forever in pursuit of balls, Daniel Holzman and now two-time J.Crew cover model Michael Chernow are expanding to Chelsea. They broke the news last night on Jay Leno, and called Grub Street today with details. The new location, expected to open this fall, is at 200 Ninth Avenue, near 23rd Street (formerly Klee Brasserie). It will be the biggest of all the New York City shops and the only to have a full liquor license like the one in Williamsburg. Obviously the neighborhood will just eat them up ... and quite enjoy the food too.

The boys will bring their balls to Chelsea.
