buying a property at auction

the procedure explained

We have listed some of the regularly asked questions raised by prospective purchasers prior to bidding for a property at auction.

what does the auction brochure tell me?

The auction catalogue provides a photograph and a brief description of the property together with clear and concise details of any matters relevant to the property.

do I need any further information?

It is essential that you view the property and obtain a legal pack prior to the auction. This will contain all the necessary documentation pertaining to the property which has been prepared by the vendors solicitors. This pack can be downloaded free of charge from our website.

It is important to read and understand the conditions of sale and possibly notify your solicitor of your intention to bid.

how do I view the properties?

During the three to four week marketing period, we set viewing times for all auction properties. These are generally weekly and we are normally at the property for twenty minutes at a time. Contact Austin Gray to book a viewing time.

do I need to arrange a mortgage prior to the auction?

If your purchase is to be supported by mortgage finance then YES you need to have a firm offer of mortgage prior to attending the auction.

do I need a building society valuation?

If you apply for a mortgage to support your purchase then the building society will instruct their own valuer/surveyor.

should I have an independent survey carried out?

It is recommended that you have an independent survey carried out. Your surveyor should arrange access with the auctioneers and the survey should be carried out well in advance of the auction day.

what is a guide price

The guide prices for each lot are clearly shown against each lot and these may be subject to amendment in the period leading up to the auction.

The guide price is a price range that the auctioneers expect the property to sell within.

what is a reserve price

All lots unless specifically mentioned will be subject to a reserve price. This is a figure at which a property can be sold and will generally be between the parameters of the guide price, sometimes below it but never above the upper end figure. The reserve can also be subject to change right up to the start of the auction but will never be above the top of the guide price.

what do I need on the auction day?

To be in receipt of any mortgage offer, the ability to pay a 10% deposit, and two forms of identification (passport or driving licence, and a utility bill showing your current address).

do I need a solicitor in attendance?

Not unless you wish to do so. It is wise to notify your solicitor of the auction and show him the auction brochure along with any other information about the property you are interested in, including a copy of the legal pack.

do I need to register to be able to bid at auction?

Yes you do. Bidders are required to register at our auctions. If you do not have a registration form please contact the Auction Department as soon as possible. Proof of Identity and Residence is required, such as a passport or photographic UK driving licence and a recent utility bill, bank statement or council tax bill. If purchasing on behalf of a company you will also need a letter of authority on company letterhead.

how do I bid?

Make sure you signal your bid clearly by raising your bidding paddle. The auctioneer will then acknowledge your bid. The final bidding price will be repeated three times before the fall of the gavel.

what happens if I am successful?

If you are the highest bidder at the fall of the gavel, you are the successful purchaser and are contractually bound to complete on the purchase. At the end of the auction you will have to pay a 10% deposit and sign the necessary papers. All documentation will then be forwarded to your solicitor. You cannot take possession of the property until completion.

how do I pay the 10% deposit?

This can be paid by personal cheque, bankers draft, by BACS or debit card. We do not accept credit cards. The balance will have to be paid upon completion, which is usually 28 days after the auction date.

do I have to insure the property?

Yes, you must make sure that the property is covered from the date of the auction.

is there anything else to pay?

Yes, there is a Administration Fee of 0.3% (0.25% plus VAT) of the sale price, subject to a minimum of £660 (£550 plus VAT) payable separately to Austin Gray. There may be further disbursements applied by the vendor, their solicitor or the auctioneers. These will be detailed in the Special Conditions of the legal pack for each property.

can I arrange after sale viewings

Subsequent after sale viewings will be charged at a minimum of £36 (incl VAT) plus mileage allowance.

guide price*

A guide price is a range that the auctioneers expect the property to sell within. The reserve price is usually set within this range but never above it. Both can be subject to change.

venue

The Holland Room, The Hove Club, 28 Fourth Avenue, Hove BN3 2PJ.

The Hove Club can be found on the western side of Fourth Avenue, on the corner of Albany Mews, close to the junction with Church Road. There is 'pay and display' parking on the roads around The Hove Club, with Norton Road multi-storey car park a minutes' walk away. Hove railway station is approximately a 10 minute walk.

A view from the rostrum

As it is the last auction of the year it affords me the opportunity to look back and take stock of 2018. There is one word that has completely dominated the news – “Brexit” and there is little doubt that the sense of uncertainty surrounding it impacted the property market, especially in London and the South East of England.

We have seen a slight fall in prices, but more significant is the lack of activity and interest as buyers sit on their hands waiting to see what happens in 2019. We see a similar pattern when a General Election is called, but they are over with a lot quicker.

Although market conditions for all agents and auctioneers have been challenging, we have suprisingly increased our percentage sale rate from an average of 76% last year to 82% this year. This is down to a thorough understanding of the market, correct pricing and going that extra mile for both vendors and purchasers.

I was intrigued to hear that a local auctioneer will be holding their 1,000th auction shortly. A remarkable feat given that it equates to an average of just over 5 auctions a year since they were founded in 1825. Even more remarkable given that there were only about 6,000 houses in Brighton at that date. The archive of those catalogues, especially from the 19th century, must be something to behold and a treasure trove of research material for historians and collectors of all things Brighton. As a member of the Regency Society, I for one would be fascinated to see them, as I’m sure so would many of my fellow members.

May I take this opportunity to wish all our Clients, old and new, a Happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

description

The property comprises a mixture of brownfield and greenfield areas extending to approximately 55 acres with a collection of agricultural buildings and various outbuildings including the farmhouse. In addition, the property benefits from a manège, large modern agricultural building and a disused poultry house.

Kents Farm predominantly operates as a livery yard with hay farming in the summer.

The farm occupies a fine elevated position with excellent southerly views over the surrounding countryside towards the South Downs.

The land gently slopes towards its southerly boundary called Herrings Stream, and is therefore well drained. It is envisaged that these factors would make it viable for use as a vineyard.

planning

The Mid Sussex District Council's Strategic Housing Land Availability Assessment (SHLAA 2018) identified this area, west of Burgess Hill, as a medium to long-term potential development area. The report stated "there is a reasonable prospect that site could be developed within the plan period". The period cover up until 2031.

The Town & Country Planning (General Permitted Development England) Order 2015, Schedule 2, Part 3, Class Q, permits the conversion of agricultural buildings to residential dwellings. Some of these buildings may not qualify under Class Q because they are equestrian, not agricultural. However, planning refusals on these grounds are sometimes overturned on appeal.

The Council also have a policy within its 2004 local plan that relates to the re-use of these rural buildings into alternative business uses.

The current overage arrangements, detailed in the Land Registry Titles, have recently been renegotiated. The new overage for the greenfield land would be 25% and 15% for the brownfield for a period of 25 years. Deed to be signed between exchange and completion.

general auction conditions of sale

introduction

The common auction conditions have three main sections:

1. glossary

This gives special meanings to some words used in the rest of the conditions.

2. the conduct of the auction

These conditions regulate the conduct of the auction. If you read our catalogue or attend the auction you do so on the basis that you accept them.

3. conditions of sale

If you buy a lot you will sign a sale memorandum under which you agree to be bound by the conditions of sale that apply to that lot. These conditions are:

- General conditions that apply to all lots
- Any extra general conditions in the catalogue or an addendum
- Special conditions that only apply to the lot you are buying (and which may vary the general conditions).

The conditions are legally binding.

important notice

A prudent buyer will, before bidding for a lot at an auction:

- Take professional advice from a conveyancer and, in appropriate cases, a chartered surveyor and an accountant
- Read the conditions
- Inspect the lot
- Carry out usual searches and make usual enquiries
- Check the content of all available leases and other documents relating to the lot
- Check that what is said about the lot in the catalogue is accurate
- Have finance available for the deposit and purchase price
- Check whether VAT registration and election is advisable.

The conditions assume that the buyer has acted like a prudent buyer. If you choose to buy a lot without taking these normal precautions you do so at your own risk.

1. glossary

In the conditions wherever it makes sense:

- Singular words can be read as plurals, and plurals as singular words
- A 'person' includes a corporate body
- Words of one gender include the other genders
- references to legislation are to that legislation as it may have been modified or re-enacted by the date of the auction or the contract date (as applicable)

actual completion date

The date when completion takes place or is treated as taking place for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest.

addendum

An amendment or addition to the conditions or to the particulars whether contained in a supplement to the catalogue, a written notice from the auctioneers or an oral announcement at the auction.

agreed completion date

Subject to condition 9.3:

- (a) the date specified in the special conditions, or
- (b) if no date is specified, 28 days after the contract date but if that date is not a business day the first subsequent business day.

approved financial institution

Any bank or building society that has signed up to the Banking Code or Business Banking Code or is otherwise acceptable to the auctioneers.

arrears

Arrears of rent and other sums due under the tenancies and still outstanding on the actual completion date.

arrears schedule

The arrears schedule (if any) forming part of the special conditions.

auction

The auction advertised in the catalogue.

auction conduct conditions

The conditions so headed, including any extra auction conduct conditions.

auctioneers

The auctioneers at the auction.

business day

Any day except (a) a Saturday or a Sunday (b) a bank holiday in England and Wales or (c) Good Friday or Christmas Day.

buyer

The person who agrees to buy the lot or, if applicable, that person's personal representatives: if two or more are jointly the buyer all obligations can be enforced against them jointly or against each of them separately.

catalogue

The catalogue to which the conditions refer including any supplement to it.

completion

Unless otherwise agreed between seller and buyer (or their conveyancers) the occasion when both seller and buyer have complied with their obligations under the contract and the balance of the price is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.

conditions

This glossary, the conditions for the conduct of the auction, the general conditions, any extra conditions and the special conditions.

contract

The contract by which the seller agrees to sell and the buyer agrees to buy the lot.

contract date

The date of the auction or, if the lot is not sold at the auction:

- (a) the date of the sale memorandum signed by both the seller and buyer or
- (b) if contracts are exchanged, the date of exchange. If exchange is not effected in person or by an irrevocable agreement to exchange made by telephone, fax or electronic mail the date of exchange is the date on which both parts have been signed and posted or otherwise placed beyond normal retrieval.

documents

Documents of title (including, if title is registered, the entries on the register and the title plan) and other documents listed or referred to in the special conditions relating to the lot.

sale memorandum

VAT election

An election to waive exemption from VAT in respect of the lot.

we (and us and our)

The auctioneers.

you (and your)

Someone who has a copy of the catalogue or who attends or bids at the auction, whether or not a buyer.

2. the conduct of the auction

The catalogue is issued only on the basis that you accept these auction conditions. They govern our relationship with you and cannot be disappplied or varied by the sale conditions (even by a condition purporting to replace the whole of the Common Auction Conditions). They can be varied only if we agree.

our role

As agents for each seller we have authority to:

- Prepare the catalogue from information supplied by or on behalf of each seller
- Offer each lot for sale
- Sell each lot
- Receive and hold deposits
- Sign each sale memorandum
- Treat a contract as repudiated if the buyer fails to sign a sale memorandum or pay a deposit as required by the conditions.

Our decision on the conduct of the auction is final. We may cancel the auction, withdraw lots from sale, or alter the order in which lots are offered for sale. We may also combine or divide lots. You acknowledge that to the extent permitted by law we owe you no duty of care and you have no claim against us for any loss.

bidding and reserve prices

We may refuse to accept a bid. We do not have to explain why. If there is a dispute over bidding we are entitled to resolve it, and our decision is final. Unless stated otherwise each lot is subject to a reserve price. If no bid equals or exceeds that reserve price the lot will be withdrawn from the auction.

Where there is a reserve price the seller may bid (or ask us or another agent to bid on the seller's behalf) up to the reserve price but may not make a bid equal to or exceeding the reserve price. You accept that it is possible that all bids up to the reserve price are bids made by or on behalf of the seller. A reserve price maybe subject to change right up to the moment of the auction but any changes will be featured on the addendum and announced from the rostrum.

Where a guide price (or range of prices) is given that guide is the minimum price at which, or range of prices within which, the seller might be prepared to sell at the date of the guide price. But guide prices may change. The last published guide price will normally be at or above any reserve price.

the particulars and other information

We have taken reasonable care to prepare particulars that correctly describe each lot. However the particulars are based on information supplied by or on behalf of the seller and we are not responsible for errors. You need to check that the information in the particulars is correct.

If the special conditions do not contain a description of the lot, or simply refer to the relevant lot number, you take the risk that the description contained in the particulars is incomplete or inaccurate, as the particulars have not been prepared by a conveyancer and are not intended to form part of a legal contract.

The particulars and the sale conditions may change prior to the auction and it is your responsibility to check that you have the correct versions.

If we provide information, or a copy of a document, provided by others we do so only on the basis that we are not responsible for the accuracy of that information or document.

the contract

A successful bid is one we accept as such. If you make a successful bid for a lot you are obliged to buy that lot on the terms of the sale memorandum. The price will be the amount you bid plus VAT (if applicable). You must before leaving the auction:

- Provide all information we reasonably need from you to enable us to complete the sale memorandum (including proof of your identity that complies with money laundering regulations)
- Sign the completed sale memorandum and
- Pay the deposit

and if you do not we may either:

- As agent for the seller treat that failure as your repudiation of the contract and offer the lot for sale again: the seller may then have a claim against you for breach of contract; or
- Sign the sale memorandum on your behalf.

All lots will be subject to a Administration Fee of 0.3% (0.25% +VAT) of the sale price, subject to a minimum of £660 (£550 +VAT) per property unless specified otherwise in the Special Conditions Sale.

Deposits must be paid by cheque or by bankers' draft drawn in our favour on a UK clearing bank or building society. The catalogue states whether we also accept cash, or debit or credit cards. We may retain the sale memorandum signed by or on behalf of the seller until we receive the deposit in cleared funds.

If you make a successful bid for a lot:

- You are personally liable to buy it even if you are acting as an agent. It is your responsibility to obtain an indemnity from the person for whom you are the agent
- Where the buyer is a company you warrant that the buyer is properly constituted and able to buy the lot
- If the buyer does not comply with its obligations under the contract you are personally liable to buy the lot and must indemnify the seller in respect of any loss the seller incurs as a result of the Buyer's default.

extra auction conduct conditions

Despite any special condition to the contrary the minimum deposit we accept is £3000 (or the total price, if less). A special condition may, however, require a higher minimum deposit.

3. general conditions

The general conditions apply except to the extent that they are varied by extra conditions, the special conditions or by an addendum.

1. the lot

- 1.1 The lot, including any rights granted and reserved, is described in the special conditions. or if not so described the lot is that referred to in the sale memorandum.
- 1.2 The lot is sold subject to all subsisting tenancies, but otherwise with vacant possession on completion.
- 1.3 The lot is sold subject to all matters contained or referred to in the documents (except financial charges: these the seller must discharge on or before completion) and to such of the following as may affect it, whether they arise before or after the contract date and whether or not they are disclosed by the seller or are apparent from inspection of the lot or from the documents:

- (a) matters registered or capable of registration as local land charges
- (b) matters registered or capable of registration by any competent authority or under the provisions of any statute
- (c) notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority
- (d) charges, notices, orders, restrictions, agreements and other matters relating to town and country planning, highways or public health
- (e) rights, easements, quasi-easements, and wayleaves
- (f) outgoing and other liabilities
- (g) any interest which overrides, within the meaning of the Land Registration Act 2002
- (h) matters that ought to be disclosed by the searches and enquiries a prudent buyer would make, whether or not the buyer has made them
- (i) anything the seller does not and could not reasonably know about and where any such matter would expose the seller to liability the buyer is to comply with it and indemnify the seller against liability.

- 1.4 The seller must notify the buyer of any notices, orders, demands, proposals and requirements of any competent authority of which it learns after the contract date but the buyer must comply with them and keep the seller indemnified.
- 1.5 The lot does not include any tenant's or trade fixtures or fittings.
- 1.6 Where chattels are included in the lot the buyer takes them as they are at completion and the seller is not liable if they are not fit for use.
- 1.7 The buyer buys with full knowledge of:
  - (a) the documents whether or not the buyer has read them
  - (b) the physical condition of the lot and what could reasonably be discovered on inspection of it, whether or not the buyer has inspected it.
- 1.8 The buyer is not to rely on the information contained in the particulars but may rely on the seller's conveyancer's written replies to preliminary enquiries to the extent stated in those replies

2. deposit

- 2.1 The amount of the deposit is the greater of:
  - (a) any minimum deposit stated in the catalogue (or the total price, if this is less than that minimum) and
  - (b) 10% of the price exclusive of VAT subject to a minimum of £3000
- 2.2 The deposit:
  - (a) must be paid to the auctioneers by cheque or banker's draft drawn on a UK clearing bank or building society (or any such other means of payment as they accept)
  - (b) IS TO BE HELD AS AGENT FOR THE SELLER UNLESS THE SPECIAL CONDITIONS PROVIDE THAT IT IS TO BE HELD AS STAKEHOLDER.
- 2.3 Where the auctioneers hold the deposit as stakeholder they are authorised to release it and any interest on it to the seller on completion or, if completion does not take place, to the person entitled to it under the conditions.
- 2.4 If a cheque for the deposit is not cleared on first presentation the seller is entitled to treat the contract as at an end and bring a claim against the buyer for breach of contract.
- 2.5 Interest earned on the deposit belongs to the seller unless the conditions provide otherwise.

3. Between contract and completion

- 3.1 Unless the special conditions state otherwise, seller is to insure the lot from and including the contract date to completion and:
  - (a) produce to the buyer on request all relevant insurance details;
  - (b) pay the premiums when due;
  - (c) if the buyer so requests, and pays any additional premium, use reasonable endeavours to increase the sum insured or make other changes to the policy;
  - (d) at the request of the buyer use reasonable endeavours to have the buyer's interest noted on the policy if it does not cover a contracting purchaser;
  - (e) unless otherwise agreed, cancel the insurance at completion, apply for a refund of premium and (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) pay that refund to the buyer; and
  - (f) (subject to the rights of any tenant or other third party) hold on trust for the buyer any insurance payments that the seller receives in respect of loss or damage arising after the contract date or assign to the buyer the benefit of any claim;
- 3.2 No damage to or destruction of the lot or any deterioration in its condition, however caused, entitles the buyer to any reduction in price, or to delay completion, or to refuse to complete.
- 3.3 Section 47 of the Law of Property Act 1925 does not apply.
- 3.4 Unless the buyer is already lawfully in occupation of the lot the buyer has no right to enter into occupation prior to completion.

4. title and identity

- 4.1 Unless general condition 4.2 applies, the buyer accepts the title of the seller to the lot as at the contract date and may raise no requisition or objection except in relation to any matter following the contract date.
- 4.2 The buyer may raise no requisition or objection to any documents made available before the auction but in relation to any of the documents that is not available before the auction the following provisions apply:
  - (a) if the lot is registered land the seller is to give to the buyer within five business days of the contract date an official copy of the entries on the register and title plan and of all documents noted on the register that affect the lot
  - (b) if the lot is not registered land the seller is to give to the buyer within five business days an abstract or epitome of title starting from the root of title mentioned in the special conditions (or, if none is mentioned, a good root of title more than 15 years old) and must produce to the buyer the original or an examined copy of every relevant document
  - (c) the buyer has no right to object to or make requisitions on any title information more than seven business days after that information has been given to the buyer.
  - (d) If title is in the course of registration, title is to consist of certified copies of:
    - (i) the application for registration of title made to the land registry;
    - (ii) the documents accompanying that application;
    - (iii) evidence that all applicable stamp duty land tax relating to that application has been paid; and
    - (iv) a letter under which the seller or its conveyancer agrees to use all reasonable endeavours to answer any requisitions raised by the land registry and to instruct the land registry to send the completed registration documents to the buyer.
  - (e) The buyer has no right to object to or make requisitions on any title information more than seven business days after that information has been given to the buyer.
- 4.3 Unless otherwise stated in the special conditions the seller sells with full title guarantee except that (and the transfer shall so provide):
  - (a) the covenant set out in section 3 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 shall not extend to matters recorded in registers open to public inspection; these are to be treated as within the actual knowledge of the buyer; and
  - (b) the covenant set out in section 4 of the Law of Property (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1994 shall not extend to any condition or tenant's obligation relating to the state or condition of the lot where the lot is leasehold property.
- 4.4 The transfer is to have effect as if expressly subject to all matters subject to which the lot is sold under the contract.
- 4.5 The seller does not have to produce, nor may the buyer object to or make a requisition in relation to, any prior or superior title even if it is referred to in the documents.
- 4.6 The seller (and, if relevant, the buyer) must produce to each other such confirmation of, or evidence of, their identity and that of their mortgagees and attorneys (if any) as is necessary for the other to be able to comply with applicable Land Registry Rules when making application for registration of the transaction to which the conditions apply.

5. transfer

- 5.1 Unless a form of transfer is set out in the special conditions:
  - (a) the buyer must supply a draft transfer to the seller at least ten business days before the agreed completion date and the engrossment (signed as a deed by the buyer if condition 5.2 applies) five business days before that date or (if later) two business days after the draft has been approved by the seller and
  - (b) the seller must approve or revise the draft transfer within five business days of receiving it from the buyer.
- 5.2 If the seller remains liable in any respect in relation to the lot (or a tenancy) following completion the buyer is specifically to covenant to the transfer to indemnify the seller against that liability.
- 5.3 The seller cannot be required to transfer the lot to anyone other than the buyer, or by more than one transfer.

6. completion

- 6.1 Completion is to take place at the offices of the seller's conveyancer, or where the seller may reasonably require, on the agreed completion date. The seller can only be required to complete on a business day and between the hours of 0930 and 1700. COMPLETION IS 28 DAYS FROM THE DATE OF THE AUCTION UNLESS VARIED.
- 6.2 The amount payable on completion is the balance of the price adjusted to take account of apportionments plus (if applicable) VAT and interest.
- 6.3 Payment is to be made in pounds sterling and only by:

- (a) direct transfer to the seller's conveyancer's client account and
- (b) the release of any deposit held by AGENT FOR THE VENDOR.
- 6.4 Unless the seller and the buyer otherwise agree completion takes place when both have complied with their obligations under the contract and the total payment is unconditionally received in the seller's conveyancer's client account.
- 6.5 If completion takes place after 1400 hours for a reason other than the seller's default it is to be treated, for the purposes of apportionment and calculating interest, as if it had taken place on the next business day.
- 6.6 Where applicable the contract remains in force following completion.

7. notice to complete

- 7.1 The seller or the buyer may on or after the agreed completion date but before completion give the other notice to complete within 10 business days (excluding the date on which the notice is given) making time of the essence.
- 7.2 The person giving the notice must be ready to complete.
- 7.3 If the buyer fails to comply with a notice to complete the seller may, without affecting any other remedy the seller has,
  - (a) rescind the contract
  - (b) claim the deposit and any interest on it if held by THE AGENT FOR THE VENDOR
  - (c) forfeit the deposit and any interest on it
  - (d) re-sell the lot and
  - (e) claim damages from the buyer.
- 7.4 If the seller fails to comply with a notice to complete the buyer may, without affecting any other remedy the buyer has:
  - (a) rescind the contract and
  - (b) recover the deposit and any interest on it from the seller or, if applicable, a stakeholder.

8. if the contract is brought to an end

- 8.1 If the contract is rescinded or otherwise brought to an end:
  - (a) the buyer must return all papers to the seller and appoints the seller its agent to cancel any registration of the contract
  - (b) the seller must return the deposit and any interest on it to the buyer (and the buyer may claim it from the stakeholder, if applicable) unless the seller is entitled to forfeit the deposit under general condition 7.3.

9. landlord's licence

- 9.1 Where the lot is leasehold land and licence to assign is required this condition applies.
- 9.2 The contract is conditional on that licence being obtained, by way of formal licence if that is what the landlord can lawfully require.
- 9.3 The agreed completion date is to be not earlier than the date five business days after the seller has given notice to the buyer that the licence has been obtained.
- 9.4 The seller must:
  - (a) use all reasonable endeavours to obtain the licence at the seller's expense and
  - (b) enter into any authorised guarantee agreement properly required.
- 9.5 The buyer must:
  - (a) promptly provide references and other relevant information, and
  - (b) comply with the landlord's lawful requirements.
- 9.6 If within three months of the contract date (or such longer period as the seller and buyer agree) the licence has not been obtained the seller or the buyer may (if not then in breach of any obligation under this condition) by notice to the other rescind the contract at any time before licence is obtained. Rescission is without prejudice to the claims of either seller or buyer for breach of this condition 9.

10. interest and apportionments

In which event income and outgoings are to be apportioned on the date from which interest becomes payable by the buyer.

- (a) the seller receives income and is liable for outgoings for the whole of the day on which apportionment is to be made
- (b) annual income and expenditure accrues at an equal daily rate assuming 365 days in a year and income and expenditure relating to a period of less than a year accrues at an equal daily rate during the period to which it relates

  - (b) the buyer must within five business days of receipt of the VAT invoice pay to the seller the VAT due and
