

EAT IN NEW YORK

.....

"there is something in the new york air that makes sleep useless." - simone de beauvoir

there's something for everyone in the city that never sleeps. posh shopping and museum-going on the upper east side's immaculate sidewalks. opera fanatics and the bright lights of broadway on the upper west. picture-perfect cobblestone streets in the west village, and a never-ending bar scene on the lower east side. depending on who you ask, the epicenter of cool is downtown manhattan or the far east — brooklyn. there's only one way to find out.

THE MEATBALL SHOP

04.15.2012

84 STANTON ST.
NEW YORK, NY 10002
212.982.8895

a variety of bang-for-your-buck, high-quality meatballs, sauces, and sides served at a casual counter until late into the night.

VISIT SITE