Meatball Shop's New Bar

For a more low-key night out, check out Meatball Shop's newest location in Chelsea – the 9th Ave. spot is dishing out a brand new "bratwurst ball" of housemade sausage and beer mustard sauce, and is the first Meatball Shop location in Manhattan to feature a full liquor license. Something they're putting to good use at "Underballs," a 20-seat subterranean watering hole dishing out Moscow Mules and whiskey floats. Check it out.
