Lent 2018 Webinar Series

Four Conversions and Spiritual Freedom

by Carla Mae Streeter, OP March 6, 13, 20, 27, 2018

Free-will donation: online credit card

or mail check to: Heartland Center for Spirituality. 3600 Broadway. Great Bend, KS 67530.

Conversion? What Kind do I Need at this Time in My Life?

We know our conversion toward a deeper union with God is ongoing, but conversion from what to what? More specifically, what kind of conversion do I need at this particular time in my life journey? As you might guess, conversion is a rich and varied experience, not a once-and-for-all event, and it takes different forms. These reflections and discussions will explore four major forms of conversion: religious, psychic, moral, and intellectual.

March 6: Religious Conversion: Being Grasped by God

What happens when the human heart discovers that God is real? What happens when I "fall in love" with God?

March 13: Psychic Conversion: The Dissolving of Psychic Scarring

Things happen to all of us that we cannot shake. The memory is seared into our feeling memory and haunts us. How can we be healed of memories?

March 20: Moral Conversion: From Short-Term Satisfaction to Long-Term Good

Life is full of decisions. How do I turn from addiction, from degrading relationships, from selfishness, from egocentricity?

March 27: Intellectual Conversion: Monitoring My Own Soul

Does discernment have a pattern? Can I learn it? Can I learn how to keep my eye on my own motivation? Can I really come to know how I operate?

Carla Mae Streeter, OP is a Dominican of the Congregation of Catherine of Siena in Racine, Wisconsin. She is presently a professor (emerita) of Systematic theology and Spirituality at Aquinas Institute of Theology, a graduate school of Theology and Ministry sponsored by the Dominicans of the Central Province adjoined to St. Louis University in St. Louis. She is author of Foundations of Spirituality: A Systematic Approach (2013) and Seasons of the Soul: An Intimate God in Liturgical Time (2012).