How do you reach out

for an advice?

How would you describe

a person to learn from?

What is the way

to surprise you?

How what you do relates to what your nature is?

How would you

ridicule somebody?

What do you consider the biggest lie in the world?

How do you feel when you play

a game you are not good at?

Do you expect somebody

to make you happy?

How long would you stand

in the rain smiling?
