Shift Drink: The Meatball Shop's Daniel Holzman Talks Ball Puns, Couples Counseling

By James Mulcahy

For the first installment of our new Shift Drink video series, we sat down for a cocktail with NYC chef Daniel Holzman, who turned a great recipe into a NYC mini-empire with The Meatball Shop, which he runs with his business partner Michael Chernow. Check out the video above to see Holzman talk about all the ballsy jokes thrown around at his joints and the challenges of starting a restaurant with your best friend. You can catch more new video series daily on the blog and see all of them on our Youtube page.
