

The Hunger Games
Afterschool Movie Viewing Permission Slip
Movie vs. Film Comparison Project

There are multiple ways to view the movie, The Hunger Games. Students can rent/borrow the DVD from the library, the RedBox, or a friend; students can watch the movie on a computer or on a mobile device via Amazon Prime, OnDemand, Netflix, or various free websites. Even if a student doesn't have access to these services, perhaps he has a neighbor, a friend, or a relative who does. Try everywhere!

For students that are unable to view the Hunger Games ANYWHERE else, I will be showing the movie afterschool on Thursday, October 2. This opportunity should only be used as a last resort. Please do your best to view the movie elsewhere.

If your child cannot watch the movie anywhere else, please initial next to each statement below and sign this sheet to consent to your child staying after school on Thursday.

_____ My child is reading the Hunger Games, Part 1

_____ My child is unable to watch the film at home or anywhere else
